Mr. Atal Hunt, his two sons, Rev. Walter Hunt and Dr. Ralph Hunt, Mrs. Anna Brown, of Boston, Messrs. Malcolm Baker, of Boston and Farmington, Conn., and Max Sawyer, of this city, have returned from a trip to Isle-Haut. They went in the yacht "Crested" and caught some fish that they sold to each of four parties for $1.00. He started out for me. They caught a halibut. One of the codfish that they caught weighed 20 pounds and they presented it to the Islesborough hotel at Astor.

Mrs. Charles Lamson, of Ellsworth, was at the station at that place yesterday morning to take the special train to this city and she was expressing her thanks to the train company. The engineer whistled and put on the brakes, Mrs. Lamson succeeded in getting off the car but it was struck by the boiler of the engine and thrown down. She was taken into a house and a physician summoned. He made an examination and found that she was fortunately uninjured, and a little later she took the train for Bangor. It was a narrow escape.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Lost in New York."

The well known melodrama "Lost in New York" was the second dramatic production of fair week at the Opera House last night and it was received by the audience which completely filled the theatre. The company is a good one and scenery is realistic and well put on. The two principal acts are the representation of the River river by moonlight, with a river of real water upon which real boats are used, and Madison Square, showing Madison Square Garden, and the real fountain. Both are effective stage settings and received the approval of the audience.

The principal roles were well taken by Frank Richardson, Charles W. Jackson, E. Edmonds and Miss Jean Williams. Comedy work, songs and dances of Edwards and the songs and dances Miss Ritchie were specialties introduced during the evening which received much applause.

The play will be given again to-night at the Opera House. Company consists of twenty-two players. Last night a successful feature at there was a goodly attendance. To-night "Phoenician future" will be the play. Saturday a matinee will be given, the admission to be only 5 cents for children and 10 cents for their parents.

Mr. Keene Coming.

On Monday and Tuesday nights next, August 26 and 27, Mr. Thomas Keene, the eminent tragedian, will appear at the Grand House in "John XI" and "Richard III," two of the greatest and most popular of his impersonations, supported by an excellent company of twenty-two players, with new and brilliant stage details. It is promised. Mr. Keene has done much to uphold the reputation of Shakespeare and other great classic dramatists. Since his death as a star, he has persistently played recreations of these masters, and nothing less. The best of anything always is, and pursuing this course so commendable to his own scholarly taste, the tragedian has reaped his reward in fame and fortune.

The Gormans.

Mr. James P. Forrest leaves to-day on advance trip as agent of "The Gormans," who will begin their tour in the city tomorrow night. The members of the company are now in Grand Rapids, and beginning their tour next Thursday. They will be in Bangor at the Grand House next Thursday.

"The Gilmorys' Abroad" is a musical comedy and the leading parts will be played by John and George Gorman, latter a wealthy real estate owner, and George Gilmory, and the former as the city's dramatist. Since his father's heirs have been unable to make a display of their humorous talents, he have made them their favorites everywhere. The company supporting the Gormans has been selected with all members being remarkably talented to their respective parts. The play, a musical comedy, pretty nearly all the cast will be introduced. The Gormans are sure to receive a warm and clean entertainment.

it but they yelled to Deady to and the "Chief" made a fine try but didn't connect. It was toun-

Bobby's ground hit to Haywood with two men out and the game tongly won. Hanuivan put one and Ericson, Bobby Moore, which broke. Whiting went to the pen the star Pawtucket all around as a single, on which Whiting scored Then Yager put up the fly. It referred to and Hanuivan scored nail, Yueger going to second.
Daley, who had not made a hit and had struck out once, got a right over her third bag and scored from second. He did not know but the umpire did not see the ball. He was thrown to the thrown to third to put him out gave the game to Pawtucket. hard fought contest on their part.
The visitors play a hard, hustling always and are good examples of to follow in that respect.
never know when they are beat-keep in the game all the time. We confess to a good deal of admirball players who unite such quality players for all they are worth.
The game was protested by the gors as Meakin had been in the after having retired, which is o-to the rules and when he took the after Letozte had put Lang out protest. Pawtucket had no other man on the bench in uniform and have been obliged to play the 9 only 3 men.

There was an immense crowd ing the game. The weather was and everybody was interested. M who has had a picnic of this kind in nearly every game he has picnto every yesterday and had to re-medicines. He was wild in the first Hayes' single and O'Brien's bagger brought in three men. Sand Henry got their base on bathe fifth and hit the home team b-bits fluely.

Hayes distinguished himself at singles in the game as usual.
In the 6th Meakin put up a high for which O'Brien, "I've got the wood run, all yelling "I've got it." consequence was that all came to and Haywood would have caught and fly cost two runs.

Gildes pitched a fine game and won his game as the side should been retired in the 9th without Gildes has done some excellent work and is certainly improving.

The contest was full of brilliant and rotted made a sensational and ph-catch in the 8th in right O'Brien made a splendid drop of a thrown ball and Bobby Moore did good work.

The feature of the play by the was the work of Hannivan. He wonder. He spoils lots of bases every day.

With Walroud at third, mad remark and Letozte ordered him the bench. Lang got stuffy and al-he would remain, where he was.

watch was pulled and at the ex-of the minute Letozte gave him a to save himself and as Lang still to obey he was fined $5 and put the game. Then Meakin went to field and Walroud to second base.
According to the rules Meakin con-
